Winemaker Notes:

This is a the second year for our Le Puits Sec Rosé! Like the rest of this vintage's productions, we made considerably less wine. Also similar is the richness of the vintage owing to the concentration of fruit and the sure imprint of the year.

The extended maceration of both Pinot Gris and Gewurztraminer, owing to their dusty-rose colored skins, impart a delicate color when included in the early ferment. This is a textural, aromatically-driven wine.
