Winemaker Notes:

These are always the last of our old vines Le Puits Sec to be picked. We coferment the harvest of the 1986 Pinot Gris and Gewurztraminer. Since these varieties ripen at slightly different times our goal is to find the happy time when the subtle differences in ripeness from each adds to the wine's complexity.

Gewurz's floral side is a little more restrained this year when compared with our 2023, but it is still there contributing some body to this lively aromatic white blend.
